Support for our global community

What is PFLAG?

PFLAG is a peer support group that assists families and friends from all cultures, religion and race to understand their loved one's sexual diversity.

Parents often feel:

- Very confused and frightened for their loved one and themselves
- Family and friends will shun them
- They have done something wrong as a parent gender and sexual diversity is a sin against their God
- Marriage is the answer to cure their child their child has shamed them

PFLAG Offers:

- Individual support, without judgement and full confidentiality
- Written information in 17 languages for those with English as a second language via our website www.pflagbrisbane.org.au
- Group meetings
- Anonymous telephone support

PFLAG is:

- 100% voluntary
- Not aligned with any political party, church or religious group
- We receive very little government funding

PFLAG's Primary Goal is:

- To support families
- To support the person with sexual diversity
- To advocate for our loved one's rights
- To educate the general community
